Headline:

Another sunny and dry day. Feeling warmer than Monday.

Today:

Another warm and dry day, with plenty of sunshine and fair-weather cloud bubbling up in the afternoon. Feeling warmer than Monday for many, with light winds. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Tonight:

Staying dry through the evening and overnight, with most seeing long clear spells throughout. The odd heavy shower likely for southernmost coasts by dawn. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Wednesday:

A mostly fine start, but heavy, possibly thundery showers move northwards across the country through the day. Southernmost areas drier by the evening. Breezy along coasts. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

Lingering heavy, possibly thundery showers early Thursday. Feeling briefly cooler following this into Friday and Saturday, and cloudier with the odd spell of light rain or showers. Breezy along coasts.
